BAPTIST CEMETERY

WAYNE COUNTY, INDIANA

BAPTIST Cemetery located in the W 1/2 Sec. 28 R14 T18.

"The Baptists probably formed the first church in the township (Green,) which was organized Nov 21, 1818, about 3 miles north of Williamsburg. Among the first members and those who joined soon after, were Isaiah Case, Benj, Jones, Eleazer Smith, and their wives, James Martin, Hannah Case...." Young. 225

The inscription read: Hannah, w William Campbell d. Dec 5, 1852 aged 20 y 3m 3d. This may not have come from Hopewell Cemetery, as I know not whether this school was located.

A CEMETERY IN

NEW GARDEN TOWNSHIP

WAYNE COUNTY, INDIANA

Cemetery located in New Garden
Twp., Wayne Co., Indiana.

SW fractional quarter of Sec 19
Township 18 Range 14.

"A Baptist Church was formed in the north-east part of the township (New Garden). The date of its organization and the names of its early members have not been ascertained. It has ceased to exist."
-From Young's History of Wayne County' ' 1870.

The following record was compiled from all the stones that could be located. The condition of the burying ground was very bad, overgrown with trees and brush. Copied by Willard and Virginia Heiss 1950.
